A BRONTOSAURUS WAS found recently in the foyer of Appomattox Elementary School. This huge, plant-eating dinosaur of the Jurassic Period weighed as much as 30 tons. The bontosaurus, a model in reality, will assist students in studying skeletal systems as well as creative writing and research. Shown unearthing the "friendly giant" are Scott Dawson, Tim Cheatham and Jeff Agee, sixth grade students at Appomattox Elementary School.

Band Boosters drive starts

The membership drive for the ACHS Band Boosters is now in progress. All parents of band students, and anyone interested in promoting the band, are urged to join. Club membership is $2.50. The first meeting for the 1981/82 school year will be Monday, October 5 at 7:30 p.m. in the music room at the high school.

The band will lead the parade October 10 for the annual Railroad Festival activities. The Band Boosters will have their first fund raising project during that weekend. They will be selling home-cooked chili beans and sno cones. Anyone interested in donating red Kidney beans, canned tomatoes, onions, crackers or money may contact any of the club officers. Proceeds earned from fund raising projects will purchase new instruments and a trophy case.

Officers for the Band Boosters are Mrs. Linda Seay, president; Mrs. Nellwyn Smith, vice president; Mrs. Betty Hancock, secretary; Mrs. Betty Magann, treasurer; Mrs. Becky Leonard, reporter, and Mrs. Betti Steinkamp, refreshment committee chairperson.

Home Economics Club meets

The Appomattox County High School Home Economics Related Occupations Club held its first monthly meeting September 16, 1981. The meeting was held in the Occupational Food's Lab at ACHS. Valarie Stevens, president, opened the meeting, welcoming all new members and previewing the events for the coming year.

The program was presented by Mr. Richard Carter on Jobs and Employee Responsibilities. Points that were brought out were: students should have a neat appearance, be prompt, have regular attendance, and have a good attitude in order to get and keep a job.

The meeting was then adjourned by Valarie with the members reciting the HERO Creed.

Promise Land news

The fourth Sunday worship service was very inspiring. The Rev. Davis delivered the morning message, and the Senior Choir rendered beautiful music under the direction of Mr. Tim Lawing. The Rev. R. Q. Lawing, Sr., Promise Land pastor emeritus, was present along with many members, visitors and friends.

Promise Land Baptist Church is having a building fund benefit on October 3, at 3:00 p.m. The Royal Supreme will be our guest for the evening.

The NAACP is sponsoring a program for Brenda Burns as queen at the Promise Land Baptist Church on October 3, at 3:00 p.m. Special guest will be the Gospel Travellers from Farmville, Va.

Henny Penny to meet

The regular meeting of the Henny Penny Extension Homemaker Club was held this month at the home of Mrs. Mary West. We discussed the council meeting and Railroad Day.

We also discussed Christmas Open House which will be held Nov. 9-13. Our club has one member on the sick-list, Mrs. Martha Pankey. We all would like to wish her a speedy recovery. Our hostesses for the month were Mary West and Elizabeth Scott, we were served a wonderful supper, everyone really enjoyed it.

Next month our meeting will be held at the home of Patricia Thorton.

FHA holds meeting

The Appomattox County High School Future Homemakers of America held their first meeting on Sept. 16. Jane Guill, president opened the meeting with the opening ceremony.

The speaker was Mr. Roland Murphy and his topic was on families. In his talk, Mr. Murphy said that families and society were changing but that families were still a vital necessity to society.

Following Mr. Murphy's speech, he was presented with a gift from the FHA. Also Jane Guill was presented with a gift to wish her luck as president for the coming year.

Sharon Davis gave a report on the work of the Appomattox/Campbell Federation and reminded everyone of the Fall Rally to be held at William Campbell October 27. A relaxer followed presented by the FHA members and the meeting was then adjourned.

AMS news

The students at AMS wish to thank Appomattox Radio, TV and Appliance, J. E. Sears, Co., Inc., Wilbun's and Appomattox Oil Co. for the nice school folders they gave us and the drug education materials they gave our teachers.

House tour slated

The Appomattox Garden Club is pleased to host a house tour of the Charles F. P. Crawley home located off of Rt. 631 (Oakley Ave.) in Appomattox. The house is of the Federal Style and is one of the oldest homes in our county. The house is the home of Mrs. Charles F. P. Crawley and has been furnished with period antiques which she has collected.

Mrs. Crawley is a retired children's librarian and is very interested in 18th and 19th Century Americana. She has recently created a childrens coloring book of Appomattox Historical Park. Her house is a reflection of her interests and everyone will surely feel the charm and grace of that period in history upon touring the home.

We invite all of Appomattox to share in this tour thru time. Tickets are $1.00 and may be purchased from any garden club member or at the door. The house will be open from 3 - 7 p.m. on Sunday, October 24 and may be seen by candle light from 5-7 p.m.

THE JIMMY MEADOR FAMILY will appear at Bethel Bible Church Oct. 4 during the evening worship service at 7 p.m. Jimmy, his wife Alice, and their daughters Denise, Sherry and Valerie are from Moneta, Va. The public is cordially invited to attend. Bethel Bible church is located next to the railroad tracks on Linden Street in the Town of Appomattox.
